ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

The Piers. Whitby has two piers or jetties to protect its harbour-mouth, but, despite these, colliers and other vessels have to take refuge in stormy weather above the bridge connecting the old and new quarters of the town, where there is a basin deep enough to hold a fleet, and shallow enough to be nearly dry at low water. Each pier has a lighthouse, and the West Pier, which is the Promenade, has also a bandstand.

With best wishes for Christmas &
the New Year.
